ELCA Social Message on Child Protection

Jesus' call of welcome in Matthew 19:13-14 points to the church's responsibilities toward children. Yet too many children today experience not welcome and safety but traumatic abuse and neglect. The ELCA's draft social message on child protection addresses this crisis and outlines the church's sacred responsibility to protect and nurture children. To strengthen this draft, we need your feedback. Share your comments and suggestions during the public comment period, which ends June 30. STEWARDSHIP FOR ALL SEASONS

Stewardship for All Seasons is a two-year program to help congregations revitalize their stewardship ministry. Going into our eighth year, it's still getting rave reviews! Congregational leaders appreciate not only its effectiveness in increasing congregational giving, but also its broader focus on improving each congregation's organizational health with intensive trainings in leadership development, strategic planning, communications, legacy giving, and other "stewardship adjacent" topics. It is not at all uncommon for congregations to sign up for a third and fourth year!

The Synod is happy to support our congregations by covering half of the fee from our Thrive! fund.

More information can be found on the Stewardship for All Seasons page on our website and by contacting Pr. Katie Kerrigan at kkerrigan@southernhiosynod.org.

ELCA Social Message on Child Protection

Jesus' call of welcome in Matthew 19:13-14 points to the church's responsibilities toward children. Yet too many children today experience not welcome and safety but traumatic abuse and neglect. The ELCA's draft social message on child protection addresses this crisis and outlines the church's sacred responsibility to protect and nurture children. To strengthen this draft, we need your feedback. Share your comments and suggestions during the public comment period, which ends June 30. STEWARDSHIP FOR ALL SEASONS

Stewardship for All Seasons is a two-year program to help congregations revitalize their stewardship ministry. Going into our eighth year, it's still getting rave reviews! Congregational leaders appreciate not only its effectiveness in increasing congregational giving, but also its broader focus on improving each congregation's organizational health with intensive trainings in leadership development, strategic planning, communications, legacy giving, and other "stewardship adjacent" topics. It is not at all uncommon for congregations to sign up for a third and fourth year!

The Synod is happy to support our congregations by covering half of the fee from our Thrive! fund.

More information can be found on the Stewardship for All Seasons page on our website and by contacting Pr. Katie Kerrigan at kkerrigan@southernhiosynod.org.

ELCA Social Message on Child Protection

Jesus' call of welcome in Matthew 19:13-14 points to the church's responsibilities toward children. Yet too many children today experience not welcome and safety but traumatic abuse and neglect. The ELCA's draft social message on child protection addresses this crisis and outlines the church's sacred responsibility to protect and nurture children. To strengthen this draft, we need your feedback. Share your comments and suggestions during the public comment period, which ends June 30. Read the draft and complete an online survey at <https://www.elca.org/faith/faith-and-society/current-social-writing-projects/child-protection>

STEWARDSHIP FOR ALL SEASONS

Stewardship for All Seasons is a two-year program to help congregations revitalize their stewardship ministry. Going into our eighth year, it's still getting rave reviews! Congregational leaders appreciate not only its effectiveness in increasing congregational giving, but also its broader focus on improving each congregation's organizational health with intensive trainings in leadership development, strategic planning, communications, legacy giving, and other "stewardship adjacent" topics. It is not at all uncommon for congregations to sign up for a third and fourth year!

The Synod is happy to support our congregations by covering half of the fee from our Thrive! fund.

More information can be found on the Stewardship for All Seasons page on our website and by contacting Pr. Katie Kerrigan at kkerrigan@southernhiosynod.org.
